

Why are Neighborhoods Important?

A neighborhood isn't just a physical place, it's a network of "people who know each other, share some of their social life, help each other out in emergencies, and get together to manage community projects." (Jonathan Barnett, University of Pennsylvania)

What can a Neighborhood Association do?

- EMPOWER A UNITED VOICE TO BE HEARD BY LOCAL GOVERNMENT
- BUILD RELATIONSHIPS WITH NEIGHBORS
- IMPROVE THE QUALITY OF LIFE
- REDUCE CRIME
- DISCUSS COMMON CONCERNS
